Apr-04	Current	Independent pharmaceutical advice is provided through various market research companies to pharmaceutical companies. Risk of any conflict with such companies is very low as they are unlikely to be commissioned by the CCG. Any further funding received from pharmaceutical companies directly or through market research companies is declared via the ABPI Declaration UK Database. Available at http://www.abpi.org.uk/ourworkdisclouser?pages?DocumentLibrary.aspx the risk of a commissioning contract being provided to a pharmaceutical company is very low. Declarations are made on any pharmaceutical products where advice has been given at the Area Prescribing Committee and Joint Medicines Committee. Please note that I do not sit on the new Medicines committee which actually makes the formulary. recommendations. The role of the APC is to consider the recommendations and approve if appropriate.
